Pursuant to this authority, the responsibility for managing and operating the Ohio Judicial Center rests with the Supreme Court. The Court may grant to other persons limited responsibility to manage and operate certain aspects of the Ohio Judicial Center as specifically authorized through these regulations. Any responsibility to manage and operate the Ohio Judicial Center not granted to other persons is reserved in the Court, acting through the Chief Justice and Administrative Director, or others as authorized by these regulations.

Effective Date: July 1, 2005

OJC Reg. 3. Application.

These regulations shall apply to all areas of the building and grounds of the Ohio Judicial Center, including the Supreme Court and its affiliated offices, all other offices and entities maintaining operations in the building, all employees of these offices and entities, and all public visitors and invitees to the Ohio Judicial Center.

While in the building the prisoner shall be accompanied at all times by an agent of the agency having custody of the prisoner and other persons as directed by the Director of Court Security.

Effective Date: July 1, 2005

OJC Reg. 11. Weapons.

(A) Prohibition. Except as noted herein, no weapon, as defined in Ohio Revised Code Section 2923.11, including firearms, ammunition, brass knuckles, martial arts weapons, stun guns, explosives, fireworks, incendiary devices, knives with a blade longer than two inches, straight razors, razorblades, or switchblades shall be permitted within or on the grounds of the Ohio Judicial Center.

(B) Law Enforcement Officers. The prohibition in Paragraph (A) of this regulation does not apply to court security officers and Ohio State Highway Patrol troopers while on active duty as part of the security detail assigned to the Ohio Judicial Center. The prohibition shall also not apply to any uniformed trooper who is otherwise on active duty and in the performance of his or her duties but not assigned to the security detail; nor shall the prohibition apply to a trooper not in uniform who is otherwise on active duty and in the performance of his or her duties if he or she provides notification of his or her presence to the Supreme Court Director of Court Security or his or her designee prior to entering the building; nor shall the prohibition apply to any other law enforcement officer who is responding to a call for assistance or a security emergency in the building. The prohibition shall apply to all other law enforcement officers who seek to enter the building.

In such circumstances, the weapon shall be properly and securely stored with the knowledge of the Supreme Court Director of Court Security.

(D) Concealed Carry. OJC Reg. 12. Public Demonstrations.

(A) Recognition of Rights. The Supreme Court recognizes and seeks to protect the rights of all citizens to publicly assemble for the purpose of petitioning their government through peaceful demonstration. However, such assembly and demonstrations cannot be allowed to interfere with the working environment or the review of matters within the Ohio Judicial Center, and should not be used to intimidate or interfere with persons seeking to enter or exit the building.

(B) Demonstrations within the Ohio Judicial Center. In order to maintain the dignity and decorum befitting the judicial branch of Ohio government, and to support an environment in which the citizens of Ohio can feel confident that judicial determinations are rendered fairly, impartially, and without the influence of direct public displays of opinion, demonstrations are prohibited within the Ohio Judicial Center.

(C) Demonstrations on the Grounds of the Ohio Judicial Center. Demonstrations are permitted on the grounds of the Ohio Judicial Center as set forth herein.

(1) North plaza. Demonstrations may be conducted on the lower fountain level of the North plaza. However, so as to provide a sufficient area for the safe evacuation of persons in the Ohio Judicial Center in case of a building emergency, demonstrations may not be conducted on the upper terrace of the North plaza.

(2) South plaza. Demonstrations may be conducted on the lower fountain level of the South plaza. However, so as to provide a sufficient area for the safe evacuation of persons in the Ohio Judicial Center in case of a building emergency, demonstrations may not be conducted on the upper terrace of the South plaza.

(3) Front Street public sidewalk and entrance. Demonstrations may be conducted on the public sidewalk on the Front Street side of the grounds of the Ohio Judicial Center. However, for the safety and security of those who wish to enter and exit the Ohio Judicial Center and those who wish to engage in a public demonstration, and because of the narrow public sidewalk and its close proximity to the ongoing flow of motor vehicle traffic on Front Street, demonstrations may not be conducted on the pedestrian ramps, steps, or entry area leading into the Front Street entrance, nor on the public sidewalk in an area beginning at a point 20 feet north of the street level entrance to the north pedestrian ramp and extending to a point 20 feet south of the street level entrance to the south pedestrian ramp.

(4) Civic Center Drive public sidewalk and entrances. Demonstrations may be conducted on the public sidewalk on the Civic Center Drive side of the grounds of the Ohio Judicial Center. However, for the safety and security of those who wish to enter and exit the Ohio Judicial Center, demonstrations may not be conducted within 20 feet of any pedestrian entrance while it is in use. Further, for the safety and security of those who wish to engage in a public demonstration and to allow for the safe flow of motor vehicle traffic to and from Civic Center Drive and the Ohio Judicial Center, demonstrations may not be conducted within 20 feet of the entrance to the loading dock or the parking garage.

(D) Noise. No person shall shout, yell or chant, or use a sound amplification device, musical instrument, or other noise generating device that interferes with the operation of any court, tribunal, office, or other body conducting business in the building.

(E) Signs. Signs, banners, placards, and flags made of cardboard, poster board, or cloth are permitted for use during demonstrations on the grounds of the Ohio Judicial Center. Supports for these items should be made entirely of wood, have dull ends, may not be hollow, may not exceed 3/4” at their largest point, and should not use nails or screws in their construction.

Hand-carried items are allowed regardless of size. Items that are not hand-carried are allowed only if they are not larger than four feet wide and four feet high, are not elevated to exceed a height of six feet above the ground at their highest point, are not used to create an enclosure of two or more sides, are not arranged in such a manner as to create a single item that exceeds the size limitation noted above, and are attended at all times.

No items may be hung from or connected to the building or any fixtures or natural plantings on the grounds of the Ohio Judicial Center.

(F) Permits and Notice. Demonstrations may be conducted without receiving permission from the Supreme Court or the issuance of a permit. Those engaged in demonstrations may provide notice to the Supreme Court Director of Court Security that a demonstration is to be held so that arrangements may be made for a safe event.

(G) Public Assembly. Nothing in these regulations shall be construed to prohibit the public assembly of persons on the grounds of the Ohio Judicial Center for purposes other than demonstrations, such as parades that are properly permitted by the City of Columbus, officially sanctioned civic events, employee appreciation gatherings, and other similar assemblies.

(H) Enforcement. This regulation shall be enforced by the Supreme Court Director of Court Security, with the assistance of appropriate law enforcement agencies.

Effective Date: July 1, 2005

OJC Reg. 13. News Conferences.

(A) Promotion of Public Understanding. The Supreme Court promotes the general understanding of the judicial process by providing maximum public access and exposure to the proceedings of the Court. This access and exposure can be enhanced by news conferences. However, news conferences should not interfere with the dignity and decorum befitting the judicial branch of Ohio government, nor create an impression that judicial determinations may be influenced by direct advocacy at such conferences. The purpose of this regulation is to balance the promotion of public awareness and discussion with the need for the courts, tribunals, and organizations that maintain offices in the Ohio Judicial Center to conduct their work without the appearance of direct advocacy outside the courtroom setting.

(B) News Conferences within the Ohio Judicial Center. A news conference may be conducted within the Ohio Judicial Center as set forth herein.

(1) By persons employed in the Ohio Judicial Center. A news conference may be conducted within the Ohio Judicial Center by any person who is employed by any court, tribunal, or organization that maintains an office in the Ohio Judicial Center pursuant to policies and guidelines established by that court, tribunal, or organization. (2) Regarding litigation. A news conference regarding pending litigation before a court or tribunal housed in the Ohio Judicial Center may be conducted within the building by persons involved with the litigation only on the days that the court or tribunal is in session hearing the matter. The news conference may only be conducted in an area of the building designated by the court or tribunal upon consultation with the Supreme Court Director of Public Information, who shall coordinate the event with the Supreme Court Office of Facilities Management.

A news conference regarding contemplated or completed litigation before a court or tribunal housed in the Ohio Judicial Center is not permitted within the building. This includes impromptu news conferences and media events, such as videographing or photographing the filing of a complaint or other pleading with the clerk of the court or tribunal.

(3) Regarding other issues. A news conference by any person not employed by a court, tribunal, or organization that maintains an office in the Ohio Judicial Center may be conducted in the building on issues other than pending litigation as follows:

- on issues involving the history of the Supreme Court or the judicial branch of Ohio government,
- on issues involving the awareness and understanding of the role of the bar and the judiciary, and the significance of the principle of the rule of law, in a constitutional democracy,
- on issues involving the study of law and the scholarly comparison of legal systems,
- on issues involving the promotion and understanding of art and architecture and the preservation of historic public places, or the artistic, architectural, and historic features of the Ohio Judicial Center.

A news conference on any of these issues may be conducted only upon the approval of the Supreme Court Director of Public Information, who shall coordinate the event with the Supreme Court Office of Facilities Management.

(C) News Conferences on the Grounds of the Ohio Judicial Center. A news conference may be conducted on the grounds of the Ohio Judicial Center as set forth herein.

(1) By persons employed in the Ohio Judicial Center. News conferences may be conducted on the grounds of the Ohio Judicial Center by any person who is employed by any court, tribunal, or organization that maintains an office in the Ohio Judicial Center pursuant to policies and guidelines established by that court, tribunal, or organization, except that the conference may only be conducted at locations authorized by OJC Reg. 12 (Public Demonstrations) for public demonstrations, and upon providing reasonable notice to the Supreme Court Director of Facilities Management and the Supreme Court Director of Public Information that the news conference is scheduled to take place.
